GOVERNOR HILL ON HIS ELECTION.

DECLARED TO BE A VINDICATION OF ATTACKS ON HIS CHARACTER-DEMOCRATS PRAISED. ELMIRA, Nov. 4 (Special).-About 7 o'clock, this evening the booming of a cannon was heard here algoritying that Governor if ill's election was being cele brated by his fellow Democrats. By 8 o'clock the street in front of Mr. Hill's newspaper office, The Elmira Ga.

sette, was crowded with spectators. Some Democrats carried brooms and a few bore torches. A procession was formed which marched through the principal streets and then returned to The Gazette office. Gove Hill then appeared on the balcony of the second story of The Gazette building, the Excessor Club, Mr. Hill's pet political organization, having rooms on that floor. The appearance of the Governor-elect was the signal for Friends and fellow-citizens: Words are inadequate to express my grateful appreciation of the compliment of this reception. A compliment ary vote by one's own heighbors and friends is always a matter for congrain-la los, but, owing to the peculiar circumstances under which the recent campaign was connected by our opponents, the condence exhibited by the people of this county and of my native county of Schuyler in the popular manifestation of yesterday in my behalf makes the local result particularly gratifying. You and they were the best judges of the justice of the attacks made upon me during the campaign. Those attacks have been answered by people who have known me from my boyhood and who re-sented them in such an empirate manner. Knowing as I did that these charges had their origin in the bitter di-appointmento. The looby which surrounded and controlled the last Legi-lature—a looby which was able to control for its favorts measures columns of the newspapers which were most violent in their attacks upon my character—I deemed them in aworthy of notice now. You have answered them, and for that asswer! thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Although I fully recognize and appreciate the fact that this vast assemblage is composed of my friends and neighbors of all parties, yet those who differ from me in their views of National polities win pardon me for speaking briefly at this time a few words of congratulation to the Democratic party of the State and Nation for the decisive victory which it has won. That vectory means that the Independent veters have abandoned the party of hypocrasy and have effected a permanent alliance with the Democratic party in the interest of reform and good government. It means that the ladependent veters have abandoned the party of hypocrasy and have effected a permanent alliance with the Democratic party in the interest of reform and good governments it means that the ladependent veters have abandoned the party of hypocrasy and have effected a permanent alliance with the Democratic par theers. The Governor upon addressing the crowd said Friends and fellow-citizens : Words are inadequate to workingmen of the State to better their condition shall be added by the necessary legislation.

It is not necessary for me at this time to make pledges for the future. In my letter of acceptance I set forth the principles by which I should be guided in the event of my election. The future will show whether those professions were sincere. In closing I desire once again to thank the people of Elmira, without distinction of party, who have so frequently honored me in the past, for this renewed evidence of their confluence and esteem. I shall return to albany to discharge the duties of my high office with renewed real, and endeavor to satisfactorily and creditably serve the people of the State without regard to party.

Other speeches were made by prominent men. The Governor held a public reception at the close of the speaking, and, after an hour of handshaking, the Excelsior Club escerted him to the Eric depot, and he left at 10:25 o'clock for Albany.

case of cruelty was discovered to-day in the town of Cheshire by Dr. C. R. Adams, of this city, a State agent for the Connecticut Humane Society. Three years ago Mrs. Caroline Brooks, who is a widow of Auron Brooks a soldier in the war of 1812, being then eighty-one years old and growing infirm, decided to turn her little farm and property in Southington over to that township in and property in contactive her support from the town.

Mrs. Brooks was also the recipient of a needlen of $36 a year. She has no near relative in Southington and he reason for thus disposing of her property was to keep hervelf out of the clutches of a niece, the wife of George Peck, jr., of Cheshire She feared her comfort would be abitized should she pass under the control of the Pecks. To her grief the Southington au thorities at once placed her in the care of the Peck fammy, with whom she has since been compelled to live to knowing where she was had given her up for dead. Dr. Adams was informed of the facts yesterday by a benevolent Cheshire woman and to-day, in the absence of the Feek family, he forced his way into a back room of the house which was heavily locked. A distressing sight met his gaze and a sickening stench filled his nos trils. Cowering in front of him in the wretched apartment stood the wrinkled, feeble old woman, with apartment some in a suffering. Her eyes filled with tears, and she implores him to go away. "I have come to relieve you," said the doctor cheerily. "Who are you!" she inquired, half-inspired by hope. "I am an arent of the State Bunane Society." "At last!" cried the woman, while tears streamed down her thin cheeks. "My God! is it possible! I knew help would come at why God' is it possible! I knew help would come at last."

The apartment was in a wretched condition. It has not been cleared since her imprisonment. The floor was a reaking mass of fish bones, meat bones, and nith of all description, a foul steach from which pervaded the apartment. The room was cold, for there was no fire. Near the door, on a stool, stood some of the diriest dishes conceivable, on which were the rations for the day. They consisted of a piece of cold sair maskerel, some mile and some cold potatees. "I can'teatht," cried the old woman. Her bed was a mass of rags, and her dress consisted of a displicated skirt and chemise, stockings full of holes and a shawl, the whole being so old, greasy and dirty as to be repulsive. Her bair was matted and her condition sickening. She told her story in full. She has been out of her room only once in the three years, and then only to change her room. Since the day she entered Peck's house her life has been one of privation and terror. According to her own story she was teed once a day. If she showed a rebellions spirit or made any trouble she says she was heaten. Peck was paid 83 50 a week for caring for her, and it is said that he cleared $3.37bg out of this amount.

This evening the woman was taken to the Southington Almshouse by the selectmen of that town. It is said that these men, William Y. Otts, Michael Egan and tharies the she will.

TRYING TO END HER LIFE WITH POISON. PITTSBURG, Nov. 4 (Special), -- A woman age about twenty five, who falsely represented herself as a daughter of Judge Curts, of New-York City, at-tempted to commit suicide at the Monongahela House last night. Her recovery is doubtful. She arrived here several days ago and going to the Hamilton House, registered as Miss Curtis, declaring that she was in search of a runaway sister. A few days ago she left her trunk as sccurity for her beard, and going immediately to the Monongahela House, was given a room, again saying that she was a daughter of Judge Carris. Last evening the proprietors became convinced that the woman was misrepresenting herself and sent for a pleteetive. As they entered the room, the woman suspected their purpose and drawing from her boson a phial of landamin drained its centents. # THE BALKAN CONFERENCE.

TURKEY DELAYS IN SENDING DELEGATES. TRYING TO ARRANGE WITH RUSSIA AND ENGLAND -ATTITUDE OF THE POWERS.

Constantinople, Nov. 4.—Turkey has not yet named her delegates to the conference of the powers in the Rouncilan question, because the Ambassadors of the Powers disagree on the subject of restoring the Status que ante and the measures to be adopted to restore it. The Porte wishes the conference to open under the uspices of a union of the Powers on the above matters. Said Pacha, the new Turkish Foreign Minister, has induced M. de Nelidoff, the Russian Ambassador, to be less determined to depose Prince Alexander of Bulgaria. The Porte is arging Sir William White, who continues to act as the British Ambassador, to ask England for new instructions respecting its line of action at the proposed Halkan conference so as to render a compromise on the Bulgaro-Roumelian question possible. The attitude of England regarding the Roumelian difficulty causes much uneasiness to the Porte. The Port believes that Lord Salisbury, the English Prime Minister, does not want to weaken any of the Balkan States, because as constituted they form a barrier against Russian schemes. At the last meeting of the Ambassadors Sir William White energetically opposed the proposition to restore the status quo ante in the Bulkans. The Powers restore the states quo and in the Balkana. The Powers are certain to disauree on this subject. Italy has tried and failed to restore accord among the Powers on the matter. The Porte fears that Austria will abandon her present policy, which would greatly increase the difficulties of the situation.

The War Office continues its active war preparations, indicating that the Powers will peacefully settle the Roumelian question at the conference which is shout to assemble here. The latest enrolled Rediffs have been mobilized into a reserve corps.

To take a hypothetical case, if Spath refused to admit English manufactures, but admitted those of other coun-tries, the raising of the duties on Spanish wines by Eng. thes, the raising of the duties on spanish wines by Eng., land would not be an infrincement of free trade principles, but would be a justifiable retallation. ## MR. BEECHER'S POCKET PICKED.

HIS GOLD WATCH STOLEN AS HE WAS ENTERING AN ELEVATED TRAIN.

Mr. Beecher lost his watch in this city on mesday, while entering an elevated railway train at the station in Forty-second-st., near the Grand Central Depot A man crowded against him and when Mr. Beecher got in the carhe found the watch gone. He went to see Inspector Byrnes yesterday and gave the number and description of the watch.

A TRIBUNE reporter found Mr. Beecher at his home. No. 124 Hicks-st., Brooklyn, last evening. He expressed surprise at any general interest in what he called so slight a matter, and then said:
"Yes. I lost my watch on Tuesday. I was coming from the Grand Central Depot and just as I got in the car a gentleman bounced up against me—I suppose I must call him a gentleman. He crowded me aside as If he was making a lane for a lady and then was gone. As I rot in the car someone called my attention to my chain hanging, and I knew in a moment what had happened, but the car had started and nothing was to be done "How valuable a watch was it?"

"It was a gold watch," replied Mr. Beccher, "which is ought in 1863 and paid over $400 for; but gold was at #2 50 then you know. It was not a presentation watch or anything of that kind, but I had carried it for over twenty years and prized it highly. I noticed that the or anything of that kind, the 1 may carried a bottom by cars and prized it highly. I noticed that the sun did not come up quite right this morning, and I attribute it all to the loss of my watch," and there was a merry twinkle in Mr. Beecher's eye.

"Of control I would like to have the watch back, but if I don't get it I have another in my pocket and can do very well. I went over to New-York to day and had the matter before the authorities. I had carried that watch over 500,000 miles and lost it at list. It list't it loss of the watch I mind so much, but the fact that some skunk has got it that won't appreciate it, for it is a good watch. It makes me think of the time I lost my overcoat—my lecture cout I call it—in chicago. I was there lecturing and after I was through one evening my coat was gone at d no trace of it could be found. I thought I couldn't do willout a lecture coat and so sent to Boston, where it had been made, and ordered another to be sent to New York against my return. Then I went on to Champian to lecture there, but after I had gone my coat was found. It appears a policeman mentioned the matter to a woman who did pay mbroking, and she said: 'I wonder it that wasn't the heavy coat a man brought in and I gave him $5 on itf' sure enough it was my coat. Pond recognized it, and I paid the woman $5 and got it back But what hurt me more than the loss of the coat was that they only paid $5 for it, for it was a schemial coat, so i suppose some dirty dog has got my watch and it won't be regarded at its value."

TAMMANY'S TRIUMPH.

THE COUNTY DEMOCRACY BADLY BEATEN AT ALL POINTS.

NEARLY ALL THE TAMMANY COUNTY CANDIDATES

SUCCESSFUL.

The total vote of David B. Hill in this city for Governor was 123,714, that of Ira Davenport was 75,446; Hill's majority over Davenport, 48,268, Edward F. Jones for Lieutenant-Governor received 121,299, Joseph B. Carr received 76,880; Jones's majority over Carr 44,419. On the County candidates Tammany had a sweeping victory with the help of its insignificant little tender, Irving Hall. Tammany elected the Sheriff and County Clerk from her own ranks, and the Tammany-Irving Hall candidate for President of the Board of Aldermen was also successful. Hugh J. Grant for Sheriff got 73,689 votes to 65,538 for John W. Jacobus and 59,207 for Andrew J. White. The contest for County Clerk was closer, the Tammany candidate, James A. Flack, getting 67,751 votes to 65,999 for Lewis S. Goebel, the Republican candidate, and 62,393 for Patrick Keenan, the present incumbent, who was renominated by the County Democracy. Robert B. Nooney for President of the Board of Aldermen received 71,030 votes to 65,963 for Thomas B. Asten, the Republican nominee, and 59,646 for Charles W. Dayton, the candidate of the County Democracy.

Judge Barrett was elected to the Supreme Court, baving the support of all parties. John Sedgwick, nominated both by the County Democracy and the Republicans, was re-elected to the Superior Court, getting 118,225 votes to 74,573 for Rastus S. Ransom, the Tammany candidate.

Henry W. Boekstaver, Tammany, succeeds Charles P. Daly in the Court of Common Pleas, though his lead over Theron G. Strong, the Republican candidate, is not large. Strong scored 64,461 votes and Bookstaver 67,143. Edward Patterson, the County Democracy candidate, received only 61,706 votes.

David McAdam, Tammany, is re-elected to the City Court by a big plurality, but his companion on the ticket, S. M. Ehrlich, runs only 283 votes ahead of Granville P. Hawes, Republican. Two Tammany candidates, Ferdinand Levy and

Dr. J. H. Demarest, were elected coroners, and one Dr. J. H. Demarest, were elected coroners, and one Republican, John R. Nugent, Following is the county ticket elected:

Judge of the supreme Court—George C. Barrett, Judge of the tomon Pleas—Henry W. Hocks aver, Tam, Judge of the Superior Court—John Sedgwies.

City Court Judges—David McAdam, Tam, S. M. Ehreich, Jam, Speriff—Hugh J. Grant, Tam,
Courty Clerk—James A. Flack, Tam,
President of the Board of Aldermen—Robert B. Nooney, Tam.

Nooney, Tam.

John R. Nugent, Rep.

Fordmand Levy, Tam.

Dr. J. H. Demarest, Tam.

The Republicans have lost the Villth Senate District through the defeat of Senator Gibbs and the election of Thomas C. Dunham, the candidate of all the Democratic factions. Stephen Merritt polled an unexpectedly large vote, 5,444. Dunham's majority over Gibbs was 1,523. Walter Howe was defeated by Traphagen in the Xth Senate District by a small majority and the Republicans did not succeed in carrying any one of the seven Senate districts.

The canvass of the votes for Assemblymen shows that the Republicans elected five of their candidates. They had six from this city in the Legislature this year. The County Democracy elect five against eight in the present Legislature, Tammany captur-ing three from them. Tammany will have a representation of eight in the next Legislature. Of the remaining six Assembly men from this city five were apported by the three factions of the Democratic party, and the sixth, Major Haggerty, not receiving be nomination from Tammany and Irving Hall, as ast year, concluded to run on an independent ticket, and was elected by a majority of 119 over the nomince of Tammany and Irving Hall,

There is no marked change in the political complexion of the new Board of Aldermen, but it is a remarkable circumstance that in the XXIId District, George B. Brown, Republican, and a member of the present board, is adparently defeated by one vote, in a tota of 13,557, by Patrick F. Ferrigan, Democrat. The official canvass may change this.
